European Weekly Summary

COMMENTARY

European Markets: Not Yet Time to Turn Cautious

- European markets' focus has largely shifted from macro issues such as U.S.-China trade talks and economic growth outlook to corporate earnings. So far, European equity earnings have been mixed, with an average "beat/miss" ratio of 53%, significantly lower than in the U.S.
- It's too early to turn defensive, as the iShares Dj 600's technical setup remains constructive. Since the follow-through day on January 4, the index reached new highs of 38.92 on April 24 has three distribution days in the past five weeks (with one expiring tomorrow), although the region's economic picture continues to look grim. Next support for the index remains the 21-DMA at 38.21 (1% downside).
- Over 26 weeks, Capital Equipment, Cyclical, Retail, and Tech continue to lead the general market, but a majority of the leaders are now extended: Halma (HLMA.GB), Homeserve (HSV.GB), Diploma (DPLM.GB), Kingspan (KRX.IE), Seb (SEB.FR), Nibe (NIBE.SE), JD Sports (JD.GB), Dassault (DSY.FR), Nemetschek (NEMX.DE), to name a few.
- As a result, actionable names on our European Focus List (O'Neil recommendations) are becoming scarce. The list does include Adyen (ADYE.NL) in Financial, Givaudan (GIVN.CH) and IMCD Group (IMCD.NL) in Basic Materials, GN Store Nord (GSN.DK) and Carl Zeiss Meditech (AFXX.DE) in Health Care, and Safran (SGM.FR) in Capital Equipment.

European Focus List

• We didn't remove any names from our European Focus List this week, but we added Sika (SIKA.CH). Our Focus List now has 36 stocks, a high number for this year.

Focus List New Addition: Sika (SIKA.CH)

- Sika produces systems and products for bonding, sealing, damping, reinforcing, and protecting for the building sector and motor vehicle industry.
- The stock broke out of a 43-week, stage-one flat base last week and remains within a pivot range. Its fundamental profile is strong, with a Composite Rating of 93 and SMR Rating of A.
- ePS Rank is presently 78 and is expected to improve given strong growth estimates for 2019 (+26%) and 2020 (+19%). The stock exhibited strong EPS growth stability the last three years, as is evident from its EPS Stability Factor of 2. Annual ROE rose to 27% in 2018, an all-time high. It has solid P/T margins of 12.6–13.8% the past three years.
- The stock has a stellar RS Rating of 90 and an RS line at all-time highs, which adds confidence that its recent breakout will sustain. There has been strong accumulation of the stock the past few weeks, as is evident from its A/D Rating of B+ and Up/Down volume of 1.2.

Actionable Ideas - Focus List: Safran (SGM.FR)

• Composite and SMR Ratings are healthy at 86 and B, respectively. We expect the stock's EPS Rank of 40 to increase as the Company's earnings profile improves in the coming quarters.

European Weekly Summary

- Technicals are strong, with an RS Rating of 91 and A/D Rating of B, indicating outperformance relative to its benchmark index and buying pressure.
- For FY18, the Company reported consolidated revenue of €21B (in line with consensus expectations), an increase of 32% y/y including the Zodiac acquisition and 10.4% y/y on an organic basis.
- EBIT grew 37.9% on a reported basis to €3B (24.7% organically), 3% ahead of consensus. EBIT margin of 14.4% represents solid progress toward the Company's target of 16–18% by 2022.
- By the end of the transition from CFM56 to more fuel-efficient LEAP in 2022, Safran expects its propulsion segment's EBIT margin to remain stable at 20%.
- Safran generates approximately 60% of its propulsion segment revenue from maintenance, repair, and overhaul services, which has a ~35–40% EBIT margin. Over the next five years, the Company expects to see a high-single digit civil aftermarket revenue CAGR.
- In February 2018, Safran completed the €8.7B acquisition of Zodiac Systems, an aircraft equipment manufacturer that generated €5.1B in revenues in FY17. From the acquisition, it targets 2022 annual synergies of €250M.

How To Read The Sector Card

Outperforming

Stocks breaking out from pivot

We recommend buying stocks at the breakout level. A breakout is a price movement of the security through an identified level of resistance (pivot point) after forming a consolidation base. Our proprietary chart patterns are based on over 50 years of our active research into the behavior of equities.

Laggards

Stocks in which investors are losing interest

Laggards are stocks showing technical weakness. We believe these stocks are laggards relative to their own domestic markets and, if owned as a long, need to be reviewed carefully as they may be vulnerable to further downside risk and underperformance.

European Focus List

O'Neil Recommendations

The European Focus List (EFL) is a proprietary list of long ideas that fit the fundamental and technical criteria of the O'Neil Methodology.

Top Rated

Stocks displaying the best Composite rating

The Composite Rating combines EPS Rank, RS Rating, Industry Group Rank, SMR Rating, A/D Rating, and the stock's percent off its 52-week high. More weight is placed on EPS Rank and RS Ratings. The resulting rating of technical and fundamental factors is compared against all other stocks in the trading country and assigned a rating from 1 to 99, with 99 being the best. A rating of 90 means the stock has outperformed 90% of all other stocks.
